

TO: ALL CCOERA MEMBER EMPLOYER LEADERSHIP
FROM: MARV TUTTLE, INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
RE: CCOERA BOARD ELECTION RESULTS (2018 – 2022)
DATE: JULY 12, 2018

CCOERA is pleased to announce the results of the recent election held for three (3) vacant positions on CCOERA's Governing Board of Directors. These positions each have four (4) year terms, beginning July 1, 2018.

We congratulate the following winners:

Eastern Slope County Employee: Christopher Felton, Jefferson County Sheriff's Department

Commissioner: Ramona Weber, Mineral County Commissioner

Special District/Municipalities: Paul Danley, Southeast Metro Stormwater Authority (SEMSWA)

Current board member Lucas Hale, finance director for Widefield Water and Sanitation District, is now assuming board chair responsibilities. The vice-chair role for CCOERA will be filled by election during CCOERA's August 17 board meeting. Other returning board members are Tobe Allumbaugh, Crowley County Commissioner (term expires June 30, 2020); Scott Vargo, Summit County Manager (term expires June 30, 2020) and Tim Kauffman, Jefferson County Treasurer (term expires December 31, 2018). The newly composed CCOERA board will meet for the first time August 16-17 for an annual planning session and business meeting.

CCOERA extends its gratitude and appreciation to Holly Bjorklund, Jefferson County finance and IT director (2014-2018); Leroy Mauch, former Prowers County commissioner (1996-2018); and Scott Ruff of Gypsum Recreation District (2016-2018), for their dedication, commitment and service to CCOERA's Governing Board of Directors.
