

2017 CCOERA Scholarship Awards

The CCOERA Governing Board and Staff congratulate the following winners of the 2017 CCOERA 4-year Scholarship Award ($500.00 per year):

- Hannah Beehler, daughter of Phillip Beehler (Brighton Fire Rescue District) will major in Mechanical Engineering at the University of Colorado. She was home-schooled and has completed college level coursework, volunteers and competes in equestrian gymnastics.
- Charise Crabb, daughter of Douglas Crabb (Eagle County) will attend Western State Colorado University in pre-medicine studies hoping to become a Pediatrician. She volunteers at several organizations and runs track.
- Evan Davros, son of Tina Davros (Jefferson County), currently attends the University of Colorado majoring in Integrative Physiology. He is a member of the Boulder Emergency squad, Arapahoe Rescue Patrol and CU Navigators. He plans to become a Paramedic Firefighter.
- Maison Hessman, daughter of April Hessman (Town of Pagosa Springs) will attend Kansas State University to major in pre-Nursing. She is a member of the NHS, loves photography and played baseball. She has volunteered in the community as well as for her church.
- Brittani Shettron, daughter of Ty Shettron (S.E. Colorado Hospital) is currently attending Adams State University majoring in Elementary Education. Before college she was involved with athletics and continues her community service. Has dreamed of being a teacher since early age.
- Randi Snead, employee of the City of Creede is pursuing a Masters with an emphasis on Public Administration. Her passion lies with working in the public sector. She has an undergraduate degree from C.S.U.

We want to thank everyone who applied for this scholarship and wish them the best of luck with their future studies.